Missionary Emphasis:
ABC International Ministries: Vital & Ketly Pierre/Dominican Republic ~ The Pierres work in the East Coast of the Dominican Republic to strengthen local churches and encourage existing churches to plant new ones and disciple new members. One way they do this is by leading and coordinating seminars and workshops. Through these sessions, pastors and leaders of local congregations learn how to start and strengthen a broad range of outreach ministries in their communities. The Pierres also serve as a link with volunteer groups, matching them with local ministries according to where they would be the most effective, as well as encouraging and facilitating Haitian mission work both within the D.R. and abroad vital.pierre@internationalministries.org; ketly.pierre@internationalministries.org

SBC Missionaries: Chad & LaDonna Wilkin (Collegiate/University Missionaries) State Convention of Baptists in Indiana, Terre Haute, Indiana ~ The Wilkin family is excited to join the mission field on four college campuses in Terre Haute, Ind. The need for Jesus on these campuses is immeasurable, and they are so thankful that God has called their family to love on this generation. During their 20-year marriage, one or both of them have been in college 12 years, so it only seems fitting for the Lord to continue their love and passion for a college campus and the students there.

SBC Chaplaincy: Chaplain (First Lieutenant) Nhan Ai Le, U.S. Army Reserve, Based Camp Arifjan, Kuwait ~ Pray for his mother-in-law's cancer, deployed Soldiers in the Middle East, his home church, Westwood Baptist Church, for their mission to reach Alabaster, Alabama, and the world.
